5 COMPLAINTS

The information contained in the system has been carefully and conscientiously collected. If, however, shortcomings should be detected, in so far as the fault cannot be remedied on the spot, the Engelberg-Titlis Tourismus AG should be notified without delay by telephone or telegraph (phone: +41 (0)41 639 77 77, fax: +41 (0)41 639 77 66) so that all necessary steps may be taken to rectify the situation or to make equivalent accommodation available. Should the holiday guest not claim his reserved accommodation or an equivalent alternative proposed by ourselves, no refund will be made by us. Likewise, we disclaim any responsibility in such cases. Guest attention is expressly drawn to the fact that only complaints or eventual claims received within 72 hours of taking possession of the service can be considered. In addition these claims must be notified in writing to the Engelberg-Titlis Tourismus AG within 10 days of the end of your stay otherwise any claim for damages is forfeited. Claims for damages cannot exceed the rental price. If no agreement can be reached the Sarnen, Canton Obwalden, Switzerland, jurisdiction is valid.

6. ACTS OF GOD

Extreme cases can always occur in the tourist trade. If an Act of God, environmental catastrophe or natural disaster should hinder our handling service we are entitled to cancel reservations without compensation. If we are prevented by other forces, equally beyond our control, from fulfilling the booking we are authorized to offer an alternative holiday flat or room in another hotel or, where necessary, to cancel the reservation. In such cases the entire sum already paid will be refunded and any further claims waived.

7. LIABILITY

Engelberg-Titlis Tourismus AG is responsible for the regular booking of the resort. Engelberg-Titlis Tourismus AG is, however, not responsible for unforeseeable factors outside the Engelberg-Titlis Tourismus AG control, such as:

- Defects or interruptions in the water or energy supply, as well as appliances such as heating, lifts, swimming pools, etc.
- Reductions in the rental value following environmental damage, temporary higher noise levels, e.g. traffic diversions, building sites, etc.

The lessee is entirely responsible for damage that has been proven to have been caused during the lessee-s stay.

Any damage must be notified to the owner or his representative before departure.

ADDITIONAL SUPPLEMENTARY CONDITIONS FOR PACKAGE TRIPS

8. PACKAGE TRIPS

A package trip exists if transport or another tourist service is offered by ETT AG together with accommodation for an "all-in" price and lasts at least 24 hours or includes an overnight stay.

9. CHANGES TO PROGRAMMES AND PRE-BOOKED ACTIVITIES ON PACKAGE TRIPS

Sometimes pre-booked travel or an activity programme cannot take place as planned. In this case, ETT AG will endeavour to find an equivalent replacement or suitable alternative wherever possible. In the event of force majeure (see definition above), official restrictions, technical defects, etc., ETT AG may also cancel the trip or activity immediately before the start. In such cases, a full refund for the pre-booked activity will be made.

10. RETURN, REIMBURSEMENT AND EXCHANGE OF EVENT TICKETS IN PACKAGE OFFERS

General:

The ticket buyer's responsible contract partner for the running of the event brokered by ETT or the provision of the service associated with the ticket is the event organiser in question. The decision as to the possibility of, conditions for and handling of the return, reimbursement or exchange of purchased tickets for events is therefore made solely by the event organiser, and not by ETT under any circumstances.

Special conditions if an event is postponed or the venue is changed:

If an event organiser decides to postpone an event or to change a venue, the ticket shall, irrespective of the reasons for the postponement or change, apply for the new date or the new event venue. It is up to the event organiser to decide whether tickets can be returned, reimbursed or exchanged.

ADDITIONAL SUPPLEMENTARY CONDITIONS FOR EXPERIENCES/ACTIVITIES/TICKETS

10. AGENCY FOR EXPERIENCES/ACTIVITIES/TICKETS

ETT AG arranges services of providers of indoor and outdoor activities and transport tickets in the name and on account of the respective service provider. All information about the providers and their services have been compiled by us on site with the greatest possible care. We cannot accept any liability for changes which occurred without our knowledge after this information was printed, nor for possible transmission and printing errors.

11. RESERVATION

The guest will receive the reservation confirmation for the booked service immediately after the reservation has been made.

12. PAYMENT

Payment is always made directly to the local provider/service provider. If payment is made in advance, the guest will receive a voucher/voucher which authorizes him to purchase the reserved services. The voucher must be presented to the provider together with an identity card.

13. PRICES

The prices in CHF listed in the reservation confirmation are binding. If the service provider is subject to value-added tax, the price is inclusive of VAT. We reserve the right to adjust prices for reasons beyond our control (e.g. currency fluctuations, newly introduced or increased taxes).

14. RETURN, EXCHANGE AND PREMATURE TERMINATION

A withdrawal or exchange of activities purchased over the Internet is excluded. If an activity is cancelled prematurely, the tickets expire and no claims for damages can be made.

15. RETURN, EXCHANGE OF TRANSPORT TICKETS

The ticket buyer's responsible contract partner for ski tickets is the mountain railway company in question and any return, reimbursement and exchange of the ticket is depending on the applicable tariff and conveyance conditions of the mountain railway company. These can be found at <http://www.engelberg.ch/en/cable-cars/agbs/>.

16. CANCELLATION OF THE ACTIVITY

The booked indoor or outdoor activities can only be refunded if the booked service cannot be obtained or is cancelled by the provider. The following reasons lead to a refund in case of a cancellation:

- Proof of capacity bottlenecks on the part of the provider.
- Weather conditions that require the suspension of operations to ensure safety.
- Complete failure of the provider (e.g. too few participants for the minimum number of participants)
- Bankruptcy or takeover of the supplier, which leads to the invalidity of the agreement agreed upon with ETT AG In case of cancellation of an activity ETT AG refunds the nominal value of the service.

17. COMPLAINTS

The information summarized in the system has been compiled conscientiously and carefully. If there are deficiencies which can be proved, ETT AG has to be informed immediately if complaints between the service provider and the guest cannot be settled amicably. In these cases ETT AG will try to check the services complained about correctly and to find satisfactory solutions. If the guest does not make use of his booked service or the equivalent alternative suggested to him, there will be no refund of payments made. In such cases, all further claims for damages are also excluded. ETT AG explicitly points out that possible complaints can only be dealt with after notification within 72 hours after using the service. Furthermore, these claims have to be made in writing to ETT AG within 10 days after the end of the stay, otherwise any claim for damages expires. If no agreement is reached in the legal relationship between you and Engelberg-Titlis Tourismus AG Swiss law is applicable. For legal actions against Engelberg-Titlis Tourismus AG the exclusive place of jurisdiction is Sarnen, Canton Obwalden, Switzerland.

18. FORCE MAJEURE

In holiday traffic, extreme cases can occur time and again that cannot be foreseen. If force majeure, environmental catastrophes, natural forces, epidemics or pandemics prevent ETT AG from its brokerage activities, ETT AG is entitled to cancel bookings without compensation. If other reasons, which are also beyond ETT's control, prevent ETT AG from rendering the services, ETT AG is entitled to rebook or, if necessary, cancel a booking. In case of cancellation, any amounts paid will be refunded, but there are no further claims.

19. DISCLAIMER

The providers of indoor and outdoor activities disclaim any liability for accidents that occur before, during or after the purchase of the service (as a rule, the terms and conditions - GTC - of the respective provider apply). Accident and liability insurance is the responsibility of the participants.

ETT AG does not assume any liability for property damage, personal injury or other financial losses in connection with the organisation and/or execution of indoor and outdoor activities carried out by third parties as provider. In particular, ETT AG excludes any liability for damages caused by cancellations, faulty organisation or the execution of activities, regardless of whether these damages were caused by the provider, by auxiliary persons of the provider or by third parties. Any claims for damages against ETT AG are excluded. Swiss law is applicable for any disputes between you and Engelberg-Titlis Tourismus AG. For legal actions against Engelberg-Titlis Tourismus AG the exclusive place of jurisdiction is Sarnen, Canton Obwalden, Switzerland.

An increase in any contractually fixed costs may occur as a result of unforeseen added taxes, an increase in the price of specific services or through changes in the international exchange rates. Notification of such changes would be given three (3) weeks before the planned event at the latest.
